FOREIGN ADVERTISEMENTS.

ANY MAN WHO PROFESSES TO UNDERSTAND all trades and sciences, assumes to impose an absurdity upon the public. On the same principle, any medicine which professes to cure all diseases, is unworthy the slightest confidence, and should at once be denounced as a quack nostrum. The Grenenberg Family Medicine does not assume to cure all diseases with one remedy. They have eleven different medicines, each adapted to its peculiar disorder, and time has proved, beyond a question, the efficacy and certainty of these preparations. Their list comprises the following medicines:

UNITED STATES AND EUROPE!

PEACE DECLARED!

By the arrival of the clipper ship White Sealion, Capt. Crosby, 11 days from San Francisco, we have received dates to 16th inst., from San Francisco, to July 24 from New York, and to July 14 from Europe.

The contents of the news is most startling, and the sudden conclusion of peace takes the world almost as much by surprise as the declaration of the war. But so it is.

London, July 13.—The following is a copy of the peace despatch sent by Napoleon to Eugenia, dated Vallegio, July 11th:

A treaty of peace has been signed between the Emperor of Austria and Napoleon, on the following basis:
The Italian confederacy to be under the honorary Presidency of the Pope. The Emperor of Austria concedes his rights in Lombardy to the Emperor of the French, who transfers them to the King of Sardinia.

The Emperor of Austria preserves Venice, but she will form an integral part of Italian Confederacy.
(Signed) NAPOLEON.

Paris, July 13.—The Paris Monitor says that the great neutral powers exchanged communications with the belligerents, offering mediation, but were unsuccessful until the French fleet were about commencing operations against Venice, and a conflict before Verona was imminent, when Napoleon, finding the Emperor of Austria willing, concluded the armistice.

The Emperors had an interview at Villafranca on the 11th inst.

London, July 13.—A despatch from Verona says that the armistice was concluded only after repeated requests from the French, and after Austria had obtained all she desired.

London, July 14.—It is reported that Kossuth would propose for a monarchical government for Hungary.

Death of the King of Sweden.
Intelligence from Stockholm confirms the death of King Oscar at that place.

Opinions of the English Press.
London, July 13.
The London News says that the hopes and expectations of Italy have been deceived, and that history will call Napoleon to account, for making a war upon false pretences, and then sign a weak and selfish peace, that leaves Austria impregnable fortified in the heart of Northern Italy, and commits Central Italy to the patronage of the Pope.

The London Post contends that the Pope is deprived of all substance, but keeps the creature of supremacy.
